

Construction and Planning Report

Closing September 2017!

eolas
magazine

Planned content

- Ministerial interview/introduction (Eoghan Murphy, TD)
- The National Planning Framework, competitiveness and the national economy
- National Planning Framework update
- Construction activity statistics for 2016/17
- Community engagement
- Construction standards and regulation
- Construction Industry Register Ireland update
- Construction skills demand and gender gap
- Energy efficiency and retrofitting
- Rebuilding Ireland/Action Plan for Housing and Homelessness
- housing shortage
- fast-tracking large-scale developments to An Bord Pleanála
- EIB strategic infrastructural investment
- Impact of Brexit
- Building Information Modelling (BIM)

eolas is Ireland's leading public policy and business magazine which is distributed to senior decision makers and influencers across the public, private and voluntary sectors in Ireland. Due to the highly targeted demographics of our readers and our premium editorial which details all the latest updates and initiatives across this sector, this is the perfect back drop to promote your business services and raise your brand awareness.

Key benefits

- Distributed directly to over 7,000 key decision-makers in the public, private and voluntary sectors
- Opportunity to profile key activities and senior people from your organisation to important stakeholders in Ireland government and business
- Enhance your profile, showcase your work in Ireland
- Highlight important issues effecting the sector to an influential audience in Ireland

Opportunities available

- Advertisements
- Advertorials (including branded interview or editorial-style articles)
- Report sponsorship (guarantee maximum exposure a mix of editorial, advertising and branding)
- Round table discussion (Invite 5/6 stakeholders and host a round table discussion on a theme/topics of your choice)

Contact Sam Torney on 01 661 3755 or email sam.torney@eolasmagazine.ie
For further information on how your organisation can feature in the report